

Table of Contents

Endorsement . . . . .	v
Dedication . . . . .	vii
About the Author. . . . .	xiii
Acknowledgments . . . . .	xv
Introduction. . . . .	xvii
I. OWNING A WATCHDOG . . . . .	1
Watchdog Goal . . . . .	1
Why have a watchdog?. . . . .	1
What Every Watchdog Owner Should Know. . . . .	2
Loyal Protective Behavior . . . . .	2
The Offended Dog Lover . . . . .	3
What's in a Dog's Name. . . . .	3
Dog Breeds . . . . .	4
Watchdog First Impression . . . . .	4
Kids and Watchdogs. . . . .	6
Watchdog Rough Play Warning. . . . .	6
What Makes a Smart Watchdog Owner? . . . . .	8

Types of Watchdog . . . . .	9
Psychological Deterrents Working for You . . . . .	11
Impersonators . . . . .	11
Dog Sitters. . . . .	11
Photograph Your Watchdog for a Deterrent . . . . .	12
Tactics Used by Burglars to Decide Whether to Target Your House . . . . .	12
Watchdog and Personalized Signs . . . . .	13
How to Call Police . . . . .	14
When to Call Police . . . . .	15
Critical Precaution of a Watchdog Owner . . . . .	15
Setting up your house for a watchdog . . . . .	16
A Smart Owner Must Recognize the Dog's Different Barks . . . . .	16
Why Dogs Bark at Doorbell Rings and Knocks at the Door . . . . .	17
Why Watchdogs Bark at Vehicles Entering the Yard . . . . .	17
How to Keep Your Letter Carrier Safe . . . . .	18
Why People in Uniforms Are a Target . . . . .	19
Calming the Aggressive Dog . . . . .	19
"Leave it" Command versus "No" Command . . . . .	20
Underground Electric Fence Containment Systems and Your Watchdog . . . . .	20
Watchdogs Tied Up . . . . .	21
The Treat Myth . . . . .	21
Legal Considerations . . . . .	22
Dog Bite Laws. . . . .	22

One Bite Rule . . . . .	22
Michigan’s Dog Bite Statute “Strict Liability”. . . . .	22
Leash Laws. . . . .	23
When can a dog bite? . . . . .	24
Does a person have a right to defend himself from a dog attack? . . . . .	25
Can your dog be put to sleep for biting someone? . . . . .	26
Can criminal charges be brought against you if your dog attacks or bites someone? . . . . .	26
Michigan Dangerous Dog Laws . . . . .	26
What is not a Dangerous Dog? . . . . .	27
Michigan Self Defense “Castle” Doctrine . . . . .	27
MICHIGAN SELF-DEFENSE ACT (EXCERPT) . . . . .	27

II. TRAINING A WATCHDOG

Dogs’ Temperaments . . . . .	29
The Human and Dog Symbiotic Relationship. . . . .	36
Watchdog Tactical Obedience Training Structure. . . . .	36
Watchdog Tactical Obedience Training Theory . . . . .	37
Training Dogs that are Potentially Dangerous and What You Should Know About Them . . . . .	40
Goal of the “no” command. . . . .	44
Watchdog Tactical Obedience . . . . .	45
Poison Proof Your Dog . . . . .	61
The Control Bark, “Speak” and “Be Quiet” Commands . . . . .	62
Training the Friendly Dog to Bark (Alert) at a Person Approaching. . . . .	64

"Trust" A Command for Fearful or Aggressive Dogs . . . . .	65
Aggressive Behavior Towards Visitors . . . . .	66
III. HANDLING A WATCHDOG
Equipment Needed . . . . .	67
Owner's Job While Testing . . . . .	67
Handling Dog on One Knee . . . . .	68
Using a Post to Test the Dog . . . . .	69
Testing Area . . . . .	69
Testing Your Dog to Be a Watchdog . . . . .	70
Dog Body Language . . . . .	71
Trainer's Body Language . . . . .	73
Line Aggression Classes . . . . .	74
Dog's Responses
Defensive Aggressive Response . . . . .	75
Neutral Response . . . . .	75
Fear Response . . . . .	76
Bite Sleeve Happy Response . . . . .	77
When to Stop Testing . . . . .	78
Real Scenarios to Test Your Watchdog . . . . .	78
Sample Scenarios . . . . .	79
Using Your Dog for Protection in Your Car . . . . .	80
Answering the Door with a Watchdog . . . . .	81
In conclusion . . . . .	82
TESTIMONIALS . . . . .	83
Index . . . . .	89
Photo Index . . . . .	93